ABSTRACT.

State when the D. P. W. framed an estimate of Rs 12,000 on account of repairs to the Rubligere Tank, and proposed that the Petrs should contribute $\frac{1}{4}$ of the amt, they refused the proposal, that if they had previously known that the estimate was amt to such a large sum, they would have pleaded inability to pay any contribution at all, and that they did pay $\frac{1}{4}$ of the cost of repairs, without any definite idea of the estimate.

When the officials of the D. P. W. inspected the Tank Petitioners represented that the tank needed partly earth-work and partly brick work, under the impression that, after the Complate

such work they might be required to contribute something like Rs 1500/- which is the yearly rental of the lands below the tank.

Petros are willing to pay $\frac{1}{8}$ of the estimated amt of Rs 12000, instead of $\frac{1}{4}$; and if this is considered low, they beg that the estimate may be reduced. If their proposal to $\frac{1}{8}$ of the cost is accepted, they pray that they may be allowed to pay the contributions in 2 instalments (vide their 1st Appeal Petr No 35 of 10.5.90).

Deposition of the ryots before the Amildar of 20/12/89:—

We have heard Dy. Chikham
No 75 of 15/11/89 read to us, directing the recovery of Rs 3000/- which is $\frac{1}{4}$ of the estimated amt of Rs 12000. The Surveyors told us that the estimate would not exceed 5 or 6000 Rs and we therefore gave word to pay $\frac{1}{4}$ of this amt. We never promised either verbally or in writing that we would pay $\frac{1}{4}$ of Rs 12000 odd.
We are now willing to pay $\frac{1}{8}$ of this amt, as we don't derive much benefit from the tank. There are no garden lands below the tank.
We cannot afford to pay Rs 3155/-.
If the Govt. grant our prayer, we will pay the amt in 2 instalments in 1890 & 1891. The rental of the lands below the tank is Rs 1500/-. but if we are reqd to pay the whole amt at once we shall not be able to pay our Randa.

Secretary's Docket No. 5216

dated 18th November 1890

No. $\frac{13140-1}{263}$ 17-2-91
23

Order:

These papers relate to the question of contribution from landholders below the Rubligere Tank in Sorab Taluk, Shimoga District.

2. The ryots are called upon by Revenue and Public Works Officers to pay Rs. 3155 under the terms of a Muchalika executed by them. They complain of this and plead that they should not be required to pay more than Rs. 1500.

3. There are 76 Registered proprietors proprietors of land under the Tank. 53 of them alone signed the Muchalika. The remaining 23 were not called upon to ~~excavate~~ ^{execute} the same or a similar agreement.

4. The Muchalika was taken on plain paper, and by it, the ryats agreed to pay a contribution of $\frac{1}{4}$ th of the cost of restoring the Tank. Neither the amount thus promised, nor the estimated cost of restoration was specified.

5. Indeed the Muchalika was taken in June 1888 and the estimate to its old standard, and that Rs. 4906, would represent the cost of further improvement.

8. It appears from the Deputy Commissioner's report that whereas the ordinary atchut of the Tank is 38 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres (all of which has been under occupation) the irrigable area under the restored and improved Tank would be nearly 77 acres more.

9. Under ^{such} ~~these~~ circumstances, the Government ~~consider that~~ are of opinion that the Ryots can be called up to contribute only $\frac{1}{4}$ of Rs. 7714 - and not $\frac{1}{4}$ of Rs. 12,160. But in

Consideration of the fact that the amount of contribution was not mentioned in the Muchotka agreement and as $\frac{1}{4}$ of 7714 would be ~~the call upon the Ryots to pay $\frac{1}{4}$ of Rs. 12,160 is unfair. They are pleased to direct that~~

~~that their Ryots' liability shall be fixed at $\frac{1}{4}$ of~~ probably heavy charge & p. 109 been with some hardship when some, the amount to be recovered is reduced to Rs 1,600.

The balance sh^d be written off the acct. & omitted

~~Do. 4/4/11 only~~

Agreement to remark
~~This is suggested~~

29. that the arrangements
for contributions were made in this case ^{in accordance with} Carried out in strict
and necessary conformity
with the standing orders
on the subject.
